

New Button-Lock™ Technology

A revolutionary advancement in design is our patented Button-Lock™ technology where the projection of one paver is receivable by a corresponding slot/ recession of another paver. It is designed to literally “snap and hook” into place, which provides an extra layer of protection to the end user. This additional locking mechanism provides the most secure installations on the market, both horizontally and vertically.